

Jazz-daughter Passionelle to American Olympic Medalist Lisa Wilcox

Jazz-offspring is circling all over the world. Australia, Hong Kong and also the USA makes advantage of this highly talented offspring. Bred by Jaap and Herma Muilwijk of the Netherlands, Passionelle is a 10-year-old chestnut Dutch Warmblood mare by the well-known dressage sire, Jazz. Imported by Queenswood Stables of Ottawa, Ontario, in the spring of 2006, Passionelle first made her Canadian competition debut at Fourth Level shown by Simone Williams. This winter, Williams stabled with Lisa Wilcox in Wellington, Florida, in preparation for the 2007 Pan American Games Selection Trials. In April of 2007, long-time supporter Gina Cunliffe of California purchased Passionelle for Wilcox.

Wilcox was a member of the Silver Medal Team at the 2002 World Equestrian Games in Jerez, Spain, and the Bronze Medal Team at the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece. In addition, she claimed the Individual Silver at the 2003 European Championships in Hickstead, England, riding her well-known partner Relevant. Having spent 12 years based in Europe, Wilcox recently returned to the U.S. where she is continuing her career as a trainer and competitor.
